Event Summary:

The Academic Summit, the flagship event of Symulate marked the beginning of Sympulse'22. The speakers for this edition were Ms. Sharon Pais, Chief Business Officer at Myntra and Dr. Arunabha Ghosh, Founder-CEO of the Council on Energy, Environment and Water. The Academic Summit being one of the pivotal highlight events of Sympulse, was also graced by Dr. Adya Sharma, the Director of SCMS Pune and the Faculty of SCMS Pune.

The summit commenced with Dr. Adya Sharma welcoming the esteemed guests and speakers and introducing them and the audience to Sympulse. Soon after, the hosts for the event Shreyansh Pinchal and Meghal Sabharwal, gave a brief introduction about the guests for the event and their achievements in their respective fields.

Ms. Sharan Pais took the stage as the first guest speaker for the day, sharing a personalized presentation. Ms. Pais spoke about her corporate journey, sharing anecdotes and memories that helped her reach the heights she has reached today. She also ensured to draw valuable lessons from her experiences, which she proceeded to share with the attendees. Her journey from an engineering graduate to the Chief Business Officer of India's biggest e-retailer in fashion was awe inspiring, and her proven track record in Marketing and Business development made her words all the more valuable. Dr. Arunabha Ghosh, who could not be present in-person at the Academic summit, was kind enough to share with the attendees a pre-recorded video, in which he spoke about the importance of sustainability, the need to be mindful of our resources and called upon the younger generations to take action towards a more sustainable future. The Summit concluded on a high note with Dr. Sabiha Fazalbhoj, faculty head for Sympulse Fest thanking all the dignitaries and guests for addressing the Summit.
