

DAY 3

Event 1: SIMUNC - UNGA

Date- 7 January 2025

Venue- AV Room

Timing- 10:00 AM to 4:30 PM

Day 2 of the UNGA Committee focused on critical discussions surrounding data privacy and data tracking as potential tools for identifying individuals involved in the illegal arms trade. Delegates engaged in intense debates on the amendment of the Arms Treaty, a proposal that faced strong opposition from global superpowers such as the USA and China, as they were non-signatories to the treaty. The discussions were thought-provoking, with countries weighing the balance between security and privacy concerns.

At the end of the session, outstanding performances were recognized: Iraq (Shreenija Dandavate) was awarded Best Delegate, Marshall Islands (Madhav Madan) received High Commendation, and the United Kingdom earned a Special Mention. The debates reflected deep research, strategic diplomacy, and compelling arguments, making Day 2 a crucial and engaging part of the committee proceedings.

Timing- 10:00 AM to 4:30 PM

Day 2 witnessed intense discussions on federalism, reservations in the private sector, and the implementation of a caste census. Delegates debated the challenges and implications of these policies, culminating in a proposed solution for conducting the caste census. The session featured thought-provoking arguments and strategic negotiations, highlighting diverse perspectives on governance and social equity. By the end of the day, outstanding delegates were recognized for their contributions, with Farooq Abdullah being awarded Best Delegate, Mallikarjun Kharge receiving High Commendation, and Asaduddin Owaisi securing a Special Mention. The debates were engaging and insightful, making Day 2 a significant conclusion to the committee's proceedings.

Event 3: Hogathon

Date - 7th February, 2025

Venue - Stage

Timing - 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm

The Hogathon at Sympulse was a fun and competitive eating contest that challenged participants to devour four burgers as quickly as possible. The rules were simple: the first person to finish all four burgers would claim victory. As the contest began, the atmosphere was filled with excitement and determination, but the challenge proved to be tougher than expected. Most participants found themselves slowing down by the second or third burger, with the sheer volume of food becoming a major hurdle. Despite the challenge, Divyanshu Sharma powered through and emerged as the winner, finishing the four burgers before anyone else. With only eight participants, the event was intense, and spectators watched eagerly as competitors pushed their limits. The Hogathon highlighted not only the participants' appetite and endurance but also their resilience, making it a memorable and entertaining part of the Sympulse festival.
